

MRS. CONSUL BOOTH-TUCKER KILLED IN WRECK ON SANTA FE EARLY TODAY.

ENROUTE FROM A COLONY VISIT

To Meet Her Husband

In Chicago Where They Were to Work for the Salvation of Souls

When Fatality Overtook Her.

Her Husband Collapsed When Told of the Awful End to His Beloved and Universally Loved Wife. Whole World Shocked
by the Startling News.

Kansas City, Mo. Oct. 29.—Mrs. Anna Booth Tucker, consul in America of the Salvation Army wife of Commander Booth Tucker, and second daughter of Wm. Booth, the founder of the army, was killed in the wreck of the east bound California train No. 2 near Dean Lake, Mo. 35 miles east of Kansas City, at 10 o'clock, last night. Col. Thos. C. Holland, in charge of the Salvation Army at Chicago, was fatally injured but not so seriously hurt. The dead and injured were taken to Fort Madison. Mrs. Booth Tucker was rendered unconscious and died within half an hour after being injured. Her skull was fractured and she was injured internally.

Mrs. Booth Tucker was on her way on a visit to the Colony at Amity, Mo. to Chicago, where she was to meet her husband today. At the time the wreck occurred at 9:30 p.m. it was not known until midnight that Mrs. Booth Tucker was among the injured. The first details of the wreck were given this morning by the Associated Press, over the long distance telephone from Marcelline, through D. B. Putnam, who had been at the scene.

The wrecked train left Kansas City at 7 p.m. It ran into an open ditch just outside of Dean Lake. On the last three cars the Pullmans and diner were wrecked. The Pullmans were completely demolished, with the diner badly damaged. The forward Pullman, Mrs. Booth Tucker and Col. Holland, who were the occupants of that car had just gone to the forward end of the car for a consultation. Two of the Pullman's struck a steel water tank with such force as to move it five feet from its foundation and when the train reached the scene, both Mrs. Booth Tucker and Col. Holland were found unconscious. They, with the other injured, were after much delay, taken to the depot platform, a few blocks distant, where everything possible was done for them. Neither regained consciousness, and within half an hour, the Salvation leader succumbed to her injuries. For a time it was feared that the unconscious man at the side was Commander Booth Tucker, and in the confusion this report was spread.

Wrecking trains were sent from Marcelline and other points and the dead and injured started for Madison, Ia. The train broke down after going a short distance, and Marcelline, the next station, was not reached until 2 o'clock in the morning. Physicians were taken on at Marcelline and the train proceeded north. Mrs. Booth Tucker was on her way home from a visit to the Colony at Amity. She left Kansas City, last evening, and was to have met Commander Booth Tucker, her husband, at Chicago, today. Although the wreck occurred at 9:30 last night, it was not known until

"She has that rare quality of perfect sympathy. She is a well educated woman in the sense that she can think and write clear, good English. She has no class prejudices, but is just as much at home in the parlors of a house in Fifth Avenue, as in the one and only room of a squalid family. But it is in the public meeting that her real power shows itself. As an orator, she ranks with less than

TRUNK LINES HAVE ISSUED

Urgent Calls for Return of Empty Cars Because of Heavy Traffic.

New York, Oct. 29.—Movement of merchandise by rail out of this city continues so large that leading trunk lines have issued urgent calls says the "Times," for the speedy return of cars from the west in some instances also the increase of train working forces which was arranged for November 1, in accordance with the usual fall business.

Shipments of merchandise and machinery to the west have thus far shown no signs of abatement. There is no such congestion of traffic as that which occurred last year however because the east bound movement is lighter.

SIR THOMAS PULLS BACK

His Offer to Present the Cup for the Trans-Atlantic Race in 1904.

London, Oct. 29.—Sir Thomas Lipton has definitely withdrawn his offer to present a cup for a trans-Atlantic yacht race in 1904, and has made way for Emperor William, who will present a cup through the New York Yacht club, or the Atlantic Yacht club.

RIOT IN FRONT OF

Bourse Over Establishment of Municipal Employment Bureaus in Paris.

Authorities in Anticipation of Disorders Had Occupied Nearby Streets With Strong Force of Military and Police, Several of Whom Were Wounded.

Paris, Oct. 29.—A serious riot occurred today in front of the Bourse, De Travail (labor exchange) in the workingmen's district, several policemen and a dozen rioters were seriously wounded and many others were lightly injured. Numerous arrests were made. The trouble followed a meeting of six thousand persons who protested against the establishment of municipal employment bureaus. The authorities in anticipation of disorders had occupied the Place De La Republique and the nearby streets, had a strong force of military and police. In the Bourse De Travail, were the organization of the bakers, and grocers. The first speaker urged the crowd to await the result of the parliamentary inquiry which it was predicted, would report a measure for the suppression of the municipal employment bureau. Other speakers who made inflammatory speeches, crying "Down with the employment offices." The crowd thereupon rushed from the building, and about 2,000 swept into the Rue Du Chateau in the Quexan where a formidable barrier of police had been drawn up. The remainder crowded to the Place De La Republique, and the Boulevard Magenta, singing revolutionary songs. A lieutenant of police and six men advanced for the purpose of arresting the singers, who resisted, and were supported by the crowd. A free for all fight followed, but the rioters gave way before the charge of the police. They entered cafes and shops, seized glasses, tables and renewed the struggle with the police. Another section of the rioters also attacked the police. While the fighting was in progress, members of the Bourse De Travail stood at the windows of that building encouraging the rioters and shouting to the police "Assassins," "assassins."

ROUGH RIDING.

IRON MARKET IS PUZZLING.

Buyers Keep Very Close to Shore. Big Foreign Shipment Engaged.

New York, Oct. 29.—It is puzzling with the spectacle of works closing and starting again, to reach any conclusion, says the Iron Age, as to the real volume of consumption. Buyers keep very close to shore, and manufacturers decline to stock production when its cost promises to be lower with the opening of next year. Under such conditions consumption is probably larger than appears on the surface, but what is really troubling most is the uncertainty of the future. During the winter months in normal years, the consumption is lighter than other times of the year, and it is too much to hope that this winter will prove an exception. With the tonnage on the books wasting away, it is difficult to hold prices. The most interesting development of the week has been the report that a lot of 10,000 tons of pig iron has been sold for shipment to Manchester, England. If that transaction has been put through, it means that a serious cut below our foreign and domestic level of values has been accepted. The steel trade is dull east of the Alleghenies, and is affected by the offerings in a restricted market of open hearth billets by works usually consuming their own steel product but now having a surplus. The markets for finished iron and steel, are, generally speaking, dull, and the new tonnage figured up, fails to replace that which is being shipped on orders. There is a good export business, but thus far comparatively little tonnage has been secured. The events in the copper industry may have a very serious effect upon the metal trade. It may show itself in an actual advance of electrolytic copper above the price of lake, since the former is preferred by many copper wire makers.

RE-ENTERED TOWN AND TOOK GARRISON.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—An official despatch from Mukden, Manchuria, says: A detachment of Russian troops entered the town, yesterday, and re-occupied the guard house. This action was in consequence of the weakness displayed by the Chinese authorities who do not fulfill their promises and owing to the general ferment prevailing here."

TWO FREIGHT TRAINS MEET.

Engineer of One Is Killed and His Fireman Cannot Be Found.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 29.—As the result of a collision between two freight trains on the B. & O. R. R. here today, engineer T. Morgan, of Grafton, W. V., was killed, and his fireman, whose name is unknown, is missing, and thought to be under the wreck. Brakeman Proudfoot, was seriously cut and bruised, the rest of the crew escaped by jumping. The wreck blocked traffic for several hours.

ALLENTOWN MURDER CASE

Is Definitely Solved If Mayor's Statements are True. Sweetheart Held.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 29.—No bail has been offered as yet for Thomas Bechtel and Alfred Eckstein, brother and sweetheart of Mabel Bechtel who was murdered last Monday. The young men were committed to prison in default of $1,000 bonds. Neither is charged with the murder of the girl, but both are detained as witnesses. Mayor Lewis said today: "One of those two men is the murderer of Mabel Bechtel, of that, I feel morally certain. We have nothing but circumstantial evidence to guide us, but so positive and indisputable is the evidence that I am ready to say our work is done. As far as the police are concerned, the case is ready for presenting to the coroner and the grand jury. It now remains for the district attorney to do his work. We have no further clues to run out. There are no other channels which might lead to another suspect. No other person but those whom we have under arrest have any direct connection with the crime. We will now wait and see what the coroner's jury will say." The coroner's inquest will be held tonight. The funeral of the dead girl will take place this afternoon.

WERE JOINED IN WEDLOCK

Last April But Not Until Yesterday
Did the Fact Become Known.

New York, Oct. 29.—Mrs. May Harrington Hanna, formerly the wife of D. R. Hanna, of Cleveland, son of the Ohio senator, became the wife of Edmund Kildredge Stallo, on April 27, last. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Hollins, in St. James Episcopal church, in this city. News of the marriage became public in New York today, through announcement given the newspapers by Mr. Stallo, who is a lawyer and financier of this city. Mrs. Hanna in 1901 came prominently before the public in Cleveland, her former home, and in New York, when she ran a mile with her three children, eluding her former husband, and detectives whom he employed. She managed to get out of a hotel here and board a steamer for Europe.

ONLY FIFTY-SIX WERE SAVED.

Yokohama, Oct. 29.—A collision occurred in a fog today off Hakodate, between the Russian Yushiki Kaisha Co.'s steamers, Progress and Tokai Maru. The latter sank. Of the 100 passengers and crew on board the Tokai Maru, only 56 were saved.

DO YOU PAY TAXES?

You Do If You Own Property. You Do If You Pay Rent.

Mark Hanna, Boss Cox and a Republican Legislature Framed the New Tax Raising, Franchise Grabbing

Cincinnati--Columbus Rule Municipal Code. Here Is What It Did for You--Here Is What It Did for Your Neighbor--Go to the Court House and See What Your Taxes Are Before You Vote.

No one, not even Mark Hanna, denies or attempts to deny that the municipal code was framed and rushed through a republican legislature by Mark Hanna, George B. Cox, and the franchise grabbing corporations of the state in which Hanna, Herrick and Cox are heavy stockholders. The wishes of the people, whose property was involved and who must pay the heavy taxes that are forced upon them by reason of the increased expenses of municipal government under the provisions of the code, were not consulted as the democratic party pledges itself to do in such matters, and the figures in the county auditor's office show the result.

Under the provisions of this infamous Hanna-Cox code, with its high salaries for officials whom the city must have, but does not need, the tax payers of Lima are required to pay from $15,000 to $20,000 per year in taxes more than they were ever compelled to pay under the old system.

The owner of any property, however small in area or valuation, must pay his or her share of this increased expense. The following are the names of a few of the local tax payers and the figures will show the increase in their city taxes since the new code went into effect. Remember there are only a few tax payers whose names have been collected at random without regard to their wealth, location or politics. Go to the court house and see what your own taxes are and see how they have increased since you cast your vote on the third day of November, and ask your republican neighbor to investigate before he casts his vote with a party whose principal object is to create new high salaries for officials to take care of their pets and have you pay the expense in increased taxes. The following figures show the amount of taxes paid by some of your neighbors at the December semi-annual tax collection of 1929 and also shows what they will be required to pay at the second semi-annual collection of this year.

SALEN CONFIDENT OF GRAND VICTORY.

Chairman of Democratic State Executive Issues a Statement, in Which He Predicts the Death of Hannaism in Ohio.

Charles P. Salen, who has aggressively and intelligently handled the democratic campaign in Ohio, has issued a statement setting forth his conviction as to the result of next Tuesday's balloting. It is reassuring, and should make every democratic and independent voter in the state put his shoulder to the wheel from now until the close of the polls. A full democratic vote, with the issue presented means democratic victory. Mr. Salen says: The great campaign made by Mayor Johnson and John H. Clarke, in which one or the other has spoken in all of the counties of the state save ten, has aroused the democracy of Ohio to a degree of enthusiasm not known since Campbell was elected governor. While the possibility of Mr. Johnson overcoming the tremendous republican majority of the past ten years seems almost incredible, I do believe that the possibility now exists. With thorough organization in the various counties to bring out the vote of the democrats and independents, with the

Seeking to Gain Control of the Northern Ohio.

According to the Delphos Herald, T. T. Johnson, Frank S. Roby and Walter Watson, officials of the C. H. & D. railroad, have been in Delphos for the last few days cleaning up the right-of-way for the extension of the road from Delphos to Mandale. There are two or three farms through which the road is to pass, where a dispute has arisen between the owner and the railroad company, but the above gentlemen expect to have this matter settled in a day or two. A blue print of the proposed road shows that the C. H. & D. trains will cross the Pennsylvania track just east of the Clover Leaf track and then run over the Northern Ohio road to a point north of the shops, where they will cut across the field and cross the Clover Leaf tracks just north of the coal docks. In some places where the proposed track cuts diagonally through a farm it is necessary for the railroad company to purchase more land than is necessary to make up the right of way. A rumor has it that the C. H. & D. people are endeavoring to get hold of the Northern Ohio railroad which, if such should be the case, would probably change matters materially.

STOPPED

Work on One of Traction Line Bridges.

Complaint Was Made That It Would Narrow the Channel of the Auglaize.

The county commissioners have found it necessary to stop further operations on the bridge which the Lima-Pt. Wayne Traction company is building to span the Auglaize river at Elida. Complaint was made that the bridge was not long enough, and if allowed to stand as now contemplated would narrow the channel and in time of spring freshets the water would overflow to the damage of property. The commissioners investigated and ordered the work stopped. The Pennsylvania railroad has a bridge across the bed of the river 85 feet long, just a short distance south of the traction line, but the latter's bridge was to have been but 65 feet. Changes will be made in compliance with the commissioners' orders.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—For Ohio, fair tonight and Friday, warmer tomorrow.

Even scrap iron is declining in price as the defeat of Hanna grows more evident.

Do you want by your vote to record yourself for the repeal of a republican municipal code, and reduction in your taxes, or do you want to stay in the fight for the sole and magnanimous purpose of settling a fight between an editor and a dentist as to which shall be postmaster?

Is not your idea of citizenship?

If not, vote for Honorable John W.
Manges, for representative, and against the father, son and holy ghost of the shipsubsidy steal, who is to decide which of the twain it shall be, after calling on God to help him in making the choice.

THE THREE DIRECTORS.

With Herrick a director in several railroads, Hanna a director in the Ohio, and Foraker a director in the C. H. & D., and all riding on passes, it is not at all strange that they should fight for the retention of a three-cent per mile rate for travel on Ohio railroads, and that they should labor night and day for the election of a republican legislature from which they can demand and get friendly legislation by way of special tax laws, and perpetual franchises.

THE CANAL STEAL.

Every man who lives in the counties through which the Miami and Erie canal passes, should, regardless of his political affiliations, vote for the democratic candidates for the legislature. This waterway, the property of the state, is more than any other public improvement responsible for Ohio's present greatness, but the plan is afoot to abandon it, and it will be done if the next legislature is republican. Geo. B. Cox has his hands on the Cincinnati end of it now, and with a legislature he can control, he will before the close of the next session have it all.

DO YOU PAY TAXES?

Are you a thinking man? Are you interested in your own financial affairs, and future happiness and comfort of your progeny? Are you, as every American citizen should be, concerned about the welfare of all the people? If you are—and we believe you are, and that ninety per cent of the people are, except when temporarily deceived by false argument uttered by false political prophets, your attention is called to the tabulated figures published elsewhere in this issue, showing how your interests are subserved by the republican party.
Read it. You may find therein your own name, and a statement of how much your taxes have been increased by the municipal code, which a republican legislature passed, and which republican spellbinders in this campaign have the nerve to give the seal of approval.

Do you want to give them another whack at it—another opportunity to increase your taxes that they may reduce the taxes to railroads?

POSTOFFICE ISSUE.

The election of a republican representative in Allen county has naught of welfare in it for you. Activity among local republican politicians and the misrepresentations uttered by them, have but two motives. Hanna wants to go back to the U. S. Senate, to put his shipsubsidy steal through, to pension ex-slaves, and keep the tariff on coal.
George Hall wants to be re-appointed postmaster. Arch Campbell wants to succeed Hall. Either to win must have Hanna's endorsement, and accrued by the same cupidity that rules in the bosom of Marcus, they are both working to send a republican to the legislature from Allen county—not for the good of the people, but for the good of Hall or Campbell, and should Belch be elected, those on the inside will hear the biggest and most artistic job of lying about who did it, that Hanna ever listened to.

Democrats and decent republicans who can see more in an election than a postmastership should keep hands off, and let the political cormorants eat one another up.

HANNA'S REPUBLICANISM.

The junior senator from Ohio affects great distress of mind over what he styles a departure from democratic principles by the present leaders of the party. With a voice choking with emotion he eulogizes the democracy of Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden. He throws a few bouquets at Grover Cleveland, and then moans and wails at what he calls "the fads and fisms of the new democracy." How about the party of Fremont, Lincoln and Blaine?
Has it, under Mr. Hanna's domination, remained true to its early traditions?
Its first convention was held in 1856, when John C. Fremont was named for the presidency. The cardinal principle of the platform of 1856 was —"That the maintenance of the principles, promulgated in the declaration of independence and embodied in the federal constitution is essential to the preservation of our republican institutions, and that congress has power and it is its duty to prohibit in the territories (of the United States) those two twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and slavery."

Did Mr. Hanna stand pat on that original republican doctrine? If so, why did he not oppose the treaty which made the Sultan of Sulu an American dependent with the protected right to be and remain both a polygamist and a slave holder? The republican platform of 1856 was about on the question of tariff reform, a gold standard or a ship subsidy bill, and therefore, according to the senator's reasoning, his party should forever remain silent on those subjects, lest it wander from the teachings of the fathers and take on fads and fisms. The democratic party stood as the opponent of special privileges and the advocate of equal rights. It slipped a rock in its position on the slavery question, and for a time was undemocratic. The republican party was raised up to take care of the slavery question. It did so, and since the object of its creation has passed away it has no longer an excuse for existence, and in Ohio, at least, it has so degenerated that it is today merely the official champion of the plundering few who seek wealth at the expense of the toiling many. From the republicanism of the anti-slavery men to the republicanism of the ship subsidy schemers is a tremendous desert.

SHORT TIME TO DECIDE.

But few days remain before the close of this quiet, but important campaign in Allen county. By next Tuesday, the voters will have to make up their minds as to how they shall cast their ballots in order to best protect personal interests, the welfare of their families and the people of all classes in this state and county.

Hanna has told them, and falsely too, that if they voted the democratic ticket, there would be days of idleness and starvation for all those who depended on the day's wages for sustenance. That has been a republican campaign canard for years, and no intelligent thinking man believes it. In fact no man who gives it thought has done else than figure out in his own mind, how much greater has grown the cost of living under a republican administration, with its high tariff trust incubator, that his hire has grown.

In opposition to the republican policy of centralization, and special privileges, the democratic party presents for the suffrage of the people for state offices, gentlemen who stand unalterably upon a platform which demands home rule, two cent a mile railway rate, and that the farmer and realty holder have his taxes reduced from the sixty per cent of the valuation on which he now pays by increasing that of corporations from the ten per cent of valuation they now pay on up to an equality with the moderate home owner, who at present bears the burden of all taxation.

There is but one way to accomplish this. The state legislature is the body which makes the laws governing taxation. It can either enact legislation which will force corporations and unjust combinations of capital to pay their fair share of the expense of Ohio's government, or it can permit it, as it did do under existing laws, passed by a republican legislature and construed by a republican state auditor, in the case of Hanna's Cleveland street railroad, which Tom Johnson had put on the tax duplicate at a valuation of six million, sixty per cent of its value—the same as the farmer pays on his valuation. This valuation went to Hanna's tool, Auditor of State Gullbert, and he at once ordered it reduced to $600,000, a sum less than the customary ten per cent of the valuation republican boards of review give to corporations.

How can this be remedied? By the election of a legislature that will not be dominated by Hanna and the corporate interests he represents.

How can Allen county help in this step toward justice for all classes, and to prevent the further granting of special privileges to the junior senator and his trailing cohorts under the leadership of G. Boodle Cox?

It cannot be done by electing Belch, the republican nominee for representative who stands for corporations and the people be damned. Mr. Belch has said so in that many words. He has absolutely said that if elected, he would not be responsible to the people of this county for his acts, on the theory of course that Hanna would dictate his acts, and anything Mark would ask of him, would be right without reference to—or regard for the people.

With Belch out of the way, and superintending his school in Putnam county, what is there to do to put an end to present legislative evils, and prevent the passing of others by a republican legislature which will more firmly and everlasting put the rope of subservience about the throat of the common people?

The people of this county have a people's candidate in Hon. John W.
Manges, who asks their suffrage for a second term on the record he made during his first term—that of unquestioned honesty and quiet, unassuming ability in his official acts.

Not a word of discredit to him has been uttered by the local republican organ. It knew better than to attack him openly. But there was another avenue open—the most contemptible, malicious, unscrupulous, mendacious—known well and practiced by the local republican managers with greater adroitness and gum shoe alacrity this year than ever before—that of attacking the character of Mr.
Manges under cover of night, and knowing him to be at the bedside of a dying wife, and for that reason unable to annul their despicable methods or refute their damnable falsehoods.

Under the cloak of Hanna, who says he is the only issue, except the Lima postoffice in this campaign, and like the veritable thief in the night, they are and have been falsely telling that Mr. Manges introduced the Saltwater Bill, and the "Straw Board Bill" which respectively had in view prohibiting the pumping of salt water from oil wells, and refuse water from paper mills into streams; or that he voted for, or that he reluctantly voted against these bills as the occasion seems to demand that they distort the truth in order to influence the particular voter before whom like cravens, they plead for his suffrage.

The facts are that House Bill, No.
318, and known as the "Saltwater Bill" was introduced by Representative York, of Ottawa county; was referred to the committee on municipal affairs, and was never reported out, consequently Mr. Manges never had an opportunity to vote either for or against the bill. The Strawboard Bill also never came from the committee, and therefore was never before the house for passage.

Mr. Manges was not a member of either the committee on Municipal Affairs, or that of Dams, Ditches and Water Courses, and had no opportunity to cast a vote for either measure.
These two matters are simply cited to guard democrats, and others interested against being deceived by campaign falsehoods. In their application to interests affected, the bills referred to cannot be charged against Mr. Manges for the reason that he never had an opportunity to express himself by his vote either pro or con.

But there are other and greater questions of public weal at stake.

Laying aside the question of maintaining democratic organization and thereby increasing the possibility of electing a democratic president, congress and senate in 1904, there are the reasons stated in the beginning that should impel every democrat in the county to vote for Mr. Manges, and every other democrat on the ticket. They are all clean, honorable capable men, deserving by their work and fealty to the party which stands for the greatest good to the greatest number, of the full suffrage of democrats and all others who wish to perpetuate their inalienable—but now questioned by Hanna—right to think and act for themselves.

Let there be no lethargy between now and Tuesday, and on that day, go to the polls as men, not as tools of the Boss who will, if you follow him, lead you, and through you, your descendants to come into the thrall-dom of a political machine which even now has you under almost absolute and corrupt domination, and which will, if given opportunity to add further corporate tentacles to the present municipal code legislation, have you so completely in his grasp as to squeeze your purse dry, and even mulet your life blood.

Man Dies in City of Detroit.

Jas. Johnston,

Who Was Injured in a Wreck,Passes Away at the Home of His Daughter, Mrs.
Nettie Walker.Deceased Was the Father of Conductors Thos. H. and William F. Johnson, of the L. E.
& W. Railroad.

James H. Johnston, a venerable citizen of Lima, died last night, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nettie Walker, in Detroit. The remains will arrive here, over the C. H. & D. this evening, and will be taken to the home of the bereaved family, at 402 east Kirby street, but arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

James H. Johnston was about 74 years of age. He left Lima last April to visit his daughter in Detroit, and on the 25th of last May,
was seriously injured in an accident on an interurban railway near Detroit. He never recovered from his injuries or from the shock he sustained and was finally stricken with pneumonia which terminated in his death last night.

The deceased is survived by his wife and a family of sons and daughters. His sons William F. and Thos.
H. Johnston, popular conductors of the L. E. & W. road, his daughter, Mrs. Walker, and his wife, were at his bedside when death occurred. The deceased was an uncle of conductors J. N. Johnston, of the L. E. & W., and A. M. Johnston, of the Grand Trunk railway.

The Belt Overcoat.

Quite the most distinguished looking of the many good overcoats we are showing is the Hart, Schaffner & Marx "Belt Overcoat." The belt is in the back only—doesn't go all the way 'round.

The coat, however, is an "all round" stylish garment; has all the characteristics of the Hart, Schaffner & Marx product—style, fine tailoring, best quality. Prices from $12 to $22.

Dress the Little Fellow Well.

You are proud of that boy of yours. Every boy should be the pride of his parents. He should be dressed so that he will feel the equal of any of the boys he associates with. Let us clothe him and we will make him one of the best dressed boys in town. All styles, all prices, $1.50 to $8.50.

half a dozen Americans of both sexes.

Remains Taken To Madison.

Ft. Madison, Ia., Oct. 29.—The remains of Mrs. Booth-Tucker, killed in a wreck on the Santa Fe, at Dean Lake, Mo., have been brought here.
Twenty-seven other persons, badly injured, were also brought to this city.

COMMANDER

Booth-Tucker Was Prostrated by News
Of Wife's End.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Commander
Booth-Tucker who arrived in Chicago today, and expected to join his wife here, was prostrated by the shock of the news of Mrs. Tucker's death. At the Salvation Army headquarters where he appeared soon after his arrival, he declined to be interviewed, and denied himself to all but his in-imate friends.

Ensign Agnew, speaking for the commander, said that he had thus far made no plans for the immediate future.

COL. HOLLAND

Looked Upon As One of the Strongest Men in Army.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 29.—Col.
Thos. C. Holland, was born at Liverpool in 1867. He was sent from England to Canada, as chief secretary of the Salvation Army in 1889, and held that position ten years. He was then national social secretary of the United States, and in that position, had charge of the social and colonizing work. These duties fitted him for the governorship of the Colorado colony, established five years ago. Its great success has been due largely to the business ability of Col. Holland, who was a convincing speaker, a skillful organizer and was looked on as one of the strongest men in the army. He has a wife and three children at Amity.

London Sends Sympathy.

London, Oct. 29.—The news of the death of Mrs. Booth-Tucker, reached the International Salvationist headquarters here through a despatch of the Associated Press. The heads of the international departments immediately met, held a short service and despatched messages of sympathy to the Salvation Army in New York.
Gen. Booth lives out of town, and Dorwell Booth was commissioned to go to his residence and break the news of Mrs. Booth-Tucker's death.

Secretary Announces Death.
New York, Oct. 29.—The following telegram was received at the Salvation Army headquarters today, from Mrs. Booth-Tucker's secretary, Ensign Hester Damme, who was also on the train, but was not injured: "Consul passed from earth to heaven. Bringing body on board same train."

SANTA FE

and the track cleared in time to allow No. 1, westbound to pass about two hours later.

Body To Lie In State.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—The body of Mrs.

Booth-Tucker, will arrive in Chicago, at 9 o'clock tonight. At 11 o'clock tomorrow, the body will be taken to the Princess rink, where it will lie in state until 7 p. m. At 8 p. m. tomorrow, final service will be held, conducted by Col. Chas. Sowton, which will be attended by Commander

Booth-Tucker. Early Saturday morning the body will leave for New York over the Michigan Central, and will arrive there Sunday morning.

MEMORIAL

Services Will Be Held and Body
Taken to New York.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Commander
Booth-Tucker reached this city this morning and was met at the railway station by Salvation Army officials and was taken in a carriage direct to headquarters. No mention of his wife's death was made on the way however, and the newspapers were withheld from him. Arrangements were that Commander Tucker and wife were to meet here, Mrs. Tucker arriving from the west at about the same hour as her husband and they were to have begun a ten days' camping on Sunday next.

As gently as he could, Col. Sowton, in charge of the Chicago station, said: "Commander, your wife is dead. She was killed in a wreck."

Commander Booth Tucker staggered, put his hands to his forehead and exclaimed "God help me; is it true?" and fell in a swoon. Pitifully moaning and wringing his hands he seemed for a time beside himself. He asked over and over if the statement was true, appearing unable to believe it. For an hour then he sat with his head bowed in his hands. As soon as he had revived sufficiently, the telegram announcing the death of his wife was read to him. The dispatch was from Ensign Demasse, and was dated Marcelline, Mo., 1 a. m., and read as follows:

"Consul passed from earth. Bringing her aboard same train for Chicago."

Arrangements were at once made for the reception for the body in Chicago and for memorial services here.
The remains will then be taken to New York and probably later to London for burial.

DELEGATE PARKS PASSED BAD NIGHT.

Testimony of Prosecution Is Telling on His Bravado. Bail for McCarthy, Indicted With Kim Is Ordered Forfeited.

New York, Oct. 29.—Before the trial of Sam Parks, who is accused of extortion, was resumed today. It is learned that the bail bond of $5,000 for Tim McCarthy, Parks' partner in the labor union, who is jointly indicted with him, had been forfeited. McCarthy, nephew of ex-Chief of Police Wm. S. Bevery, is the bondsman. At the request of Assistant District Attorney Kind, the forfeiture of the bond will not be entered until tomorrow. According to Mr. Kind, McCarthy is expected to appear within the next twenty-four hours, but whether he will be produced by his bondsmen or apprehended by the police, the official did not say. Parks was not looking well when he entered court today, and in response to Mr. Osborne's greeting, he said he had not slept very well. Mr. Kind said that the prosecution would rest today and the general impression is that the case will go to the jury not later than tomorrow. Louis Schmitt, who gave Parks $500 last January, the act which forms the basis of the charge against the defendant, was called to the stand, and Mr. Osborne resumed his cross examination.

SIX WERE KILLED, AND HUNDRED HURT.

Bilbao, Spain, Oct. 29.—The garrison of Bilbao has been reinforced but troops still have difficulty in coping with the rioting strikers, who instantly erect new barricades as the forces are torn down by the soldiers. The city presents a stormy spectacle owing to the widespread destruction wrought by the mobs. Rioters used dynamite in several places to blow in the doors of the strikers' houses, and to destroy railroad tracks, with the object of preventing trains from entering Bilbao. Famine prices are already being charged for provisions. Even bread is so scarce that loaves are selling at 4 pesetas (about 75 cents). Six persons were killed and a hundred injured during yesterday's conflicts. Hundreds of people have fled from the city. The railroad employees now threaten to join the strikers. Acting under orders from Madrid the governor of Bilbao has summoned the mine owners to a conference.

ONEY TRANSFERS TO ST. LOUIS SHOW

What Disturbed Financial Conditions Exists in the World's Fair City.

New York, Oct. 29.—Further heavy shipments of currency to St. Louis and other western and southwestern cities were being made through the treasury today. Up to noon, transfers to St. Louis amounted to $500,000, with $600,000 to Chicago and $1,000,000 to New Orleans.

The transfers to Chicago and New Orleans are the result of legitimate call for crop money, but St. Louis continued drafts on this center reflect existing disturbed conditions there. Reports state that fully $750,000 cash was shipped direct to St. Louis by local banks, last night.

Not Plead Guilty to a Charge of Burglary.

George Elwell, a plumber, who has been employed by contractor E. E. Tuttle, for a short time, is a prisoner at the police station, charged with burglary and larceny, and there seems little chance for him to escape a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Elwell worked for several days in the Hetrick block, equipping the building for steam heating and while there, he discovered that he could gain an entrance into the basement beneath Watson's grocery from the basement beneath the Morris wall paper store. He entered the place last evening about 7 o'clock, and after ascending the stairs leading to the grocery, he robbed Mr. Watson's cash register of about $60.

Mr. Watson returned to the store after supper, and discovered the robbery. He notified the police and they soon had Elwell "spotted" as the guilty man. Mr. Tuttle had discharged Elwell, but the latter was found, two hours after the robbery was committed, at the Brunswick hotel. He was arrested by detective Fenstermaker, and $48.30 was found in his possession. He admitted having committed the crime, and stated that he had spent $7.40 of the money. He is willing to plead guilty to a charge of grand larceny, but will not plead guilty to a charge of burglary.

BULLET

Ended the Life Of a Young Man.

Friends Do Not Take Any Stock In the Theory of It Being a Suicide.

Marion Burnett, aged 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Burnett, of near Landeck, shot himself fatally, Tuesday evening, and was dead before medical aid could be summoned. The young man had charge of the telephone station at Converse, and stepped into the yard, as he said to shoot a bird.

He had a 32 calibre revolver and when his sister heard it discharged, she glanced from the window to see her brother lying on the ground. Although it has every appearance of being suicide, the opinion prevails that the shooting was accidental. Burnett was a cripple, both hips being disabled, but there was nothing in his life of which anyone knows, that would prompt him to kill himself. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

the Parade.

The dramatic order of the Knights of Khorassan had a great time at Findlay last night, and it was unfortunate that, owing to the degree work which the Knights of Pythias had on hands for the same evening, prevented many from Lima being in attendance. The parade was a grand, spectacular feature and the visiting knights from other cities numbered at least 500.

A signal honor was conferred on Hon. Walter B. Richie, of Lima, who was elected president of the order. The other officers are Judge A. E. Kerns, of Findlay, vice president; Frank A. Lander, of Cleveland, treasurer; and J. L. Alder, of Sidney, secretary. It was after three o'clock this morning before the knights reached Lima on their way to neighboring homes, and Reed's band, of Sidney, made their arrival definite and certain.

Come and See Us!

It will prove of mutual advantage, if it is your desire to be fashionably attired in clothes that'll fit you perfectly and that'll give you good service. It is our desire to clothe just such men as you (we presume you're particular) with the hand-tailored, ready-to-put-on which are the most fashionable, the most superbly tailored and the best fitting clothes to be had anywhere and at any price.

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes are "individual-tailor-made"—out, sewn, finished—in precisely the same way the high-priced tailors "do the trick." The only difference is in the price. Come and see for yourself—"Seeing is believing"—and nothing pleases us more than to show these garments to critical gentlemen—or ladies, for that matter.

PERMANENCY OF ALLIANCE

Is Emphasized by Visit and Cordial Reception Given War Minister.

Paris, Oct. 29.—Count Lamsdorff, eastern and far eastern questions, but the Russian foreign minister, has arrived here, accompanied by a numerous suite. M. Delcasse, the French minister for foreign affairs was at the railroad station to extend a personal greeting to the Russian minister. The official character of the visit was shown by the presence at the station of M. Mollard, chief of the protocol. Prince Ourousoff, the Russian ambassador, Prince Orloss and other members of the Russian embassy were present. After greetings had been exchanged Count Lamsdorff was escorted to the Continental hotel. During the day many calls of courtesy were extended. The important conferences between M. Delcasse and Count Lamsdorff, being deferred until later. The program of the visit has been changed, so as to include a grand dinner at the Elysee Palace tomorrow night in honor of Count Lamsdorff. M. Delcasse will give a dinner to the count on the following Friday.

The visit of Count Lamsdorff absorbs the attention of the public and the press, who attribute to it even more important political significance than to the visits of King Edward and King Victor Emmanuel to Paris. The newspapers generally agree that the ministers will discuss thoroughly the

FIGHTING BETWEEN TROOPS AND STRIKERS.

Bilbao, Spain Oct 29.—As a result of the strike situation the foreign consuls have demanded from the military authorities, protection for the ships of their nationalities now in port. Serious fighting has occurred in the streets between troops and strikers. It was started by rioters shooting from a window while an infantry regiment was passing. The soldiers thereupon charged the crowds. Many persons, including a captain, were wounded.

In yesterday's rioting, a woman was killed, and a score of people were wounded.

SHOW BILLS CAUSED HEAVY RUN ON BANK.

Barnsboro, Pa., Oct 29.—Foreign mine workers have just made a run on the principal banking institution because of show bills which had been displayed prominently about town.

The bills said something about bank troubles, and the foreigners asked no questions, but hurriedly withdrew their cash. They placed it with coal operators, who sent it back to a bank in their own deposits.

A SLEEP FANTASY.

The Confusion and Absurdities That Come to Us in Dreams.

If you would know what stuff dreams are made of, read the following description of a sleep fantasy from F. Marion Crawford's novel "Coelia".

Sometimes in meandering through a maze of absurdities in which we feel as madmen must, believing ourselves to be others than ourselves.

Concerning the laws of nature to be reversed for our advantage or our ruin, seeing right as wrong and wrong as right is the pathetic innocence of the idiot or the senseless rage of the maniac, convinced beyond all argument that the absolutely impossible is happening before our eyes, yet never in the least astonished by any wonders, though subject to terrors we never feel when we are awake. Has no one even understood that confused dreaming must be exactly like the mental state of the insane? Inanimate things turn into living creatures, the chair we sit on becomes a horse, the armchair is turned into a wild beast, and we ride a-hunting through endless drawing rooms, which are full of trees and undergrowth, till the trees are suddenly turned into people, who dance and laugh at us because we have come to the ball in attire so exceedingly scanty that we wonder how the servants could have let us in.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion.

Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to a cough of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy, and want no other kind for their children." For sale by all druggists.

WANTED—GIRLS TO LEARN THE CIGAR MAKING TRADE, WILL BE WELL PAID WHILE LEARNING. TOBACCO STRIPPERS ALSO WANTED, CAN EARN GOOD WAGES. THE DEISEL-WEMMER CO. 11-47

Mrs. F. W. Hunter, of Buffalo, N. Y., will demonstrate the Florentine remedies, at the store of the Lima Dry Goods Co., beginning Wednesday morning, October 31. 4-47

At Fredericksburg, on the day when half the brigades of Meagher and Caldwell lay on the bloody slope leading up to the Confederate intrenchments, among the assaulting regiments was the Fifth New Hampshire, and it lost 180 out of the 300 men who made the charge. The survivors fell behind a fence within reach of the Confederate rifle pits. Just before reaching it the last one of the color guard was shot, and the flag fell in the open.

A captain, Perry, instantly ran out to rescue it and as he reached it was shot through the heart. Another captain, Murray, made the same attempt and was also killed, and so was a third, Moore. Several private soldiers met a like fate. They were all killed close to the flag, and their dead bodies fell across one another.

Taking advantage of this breastwork, Lieutenant Nettleton crawled from behind the fence to the colors, seized them and bore back the blood won trophy.

Eagles in the Tennessee Mountains.

There are many eagles in the Tennessee mountains, and consequently there are many mountaineers who are expert catchers of the young eagles. These reap rich rewards in return for their perilous risks and adventures, and some of them receive as much as $2,000 for a single year's catch. The keen eyed hunters watch the nests until the young are hatched, and then, patiently waiting for the mother bird to leave in search of food, make quick work of the capture, while the mother bird is inevitably shut to death upon her return to the nest and in her frenzied search for her young. Bolder hunters than these make their attack at night, while the less experienced use snares and nets, a method, however, in a majority of cases unsuccessful. Independent.

Jennie Ritzer, Omaha—"I have gained thirty-five pounds in two months. Nothing did me any good until I used Rocky Mountain Tea." A blessing to sickly women. For sale by H. F. Verkamp, corner North and Main streets.

MANY ARE PRESENT.

Chatanooga, Tenn., Oct. 29.—The twenty-second annual meeting of the board of managers of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church is in session here. Over 250 delegates from all parts of the United States are in attendance. Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk, of New York, president, is presiding.

Spent More Than $1,000.

"My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years, she tried a number of doctors and spent over $1,000 without relief," writes W. W. Baker, of Plainville, Neb. "She became very low and lost all hope. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and thanks to this great remedy, it saved her life. She enjoys better health than she has known in ten years." Refuse substitutes. Sold by H. F. Verkamp, druggist, corner of Main and North streets.

TRAGEDY SUSPECTED.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 29.—A special to the Tribune from Roby, Ind., says: "A tragedy is now suspected in connection with the dynamite explosion at Roby, Ind., Monday night. It is alleged that several employees of the Lums Steel company were blown to atoms. The company officials deny this, but other persons contend that the report is true. A strict guard has been placed about the premises."

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed by H. F. Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by porcupine quills or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

CHEAP RAILROAD RATES.

On November 3rd and 17th the Erie railroad will sell Homeseekers' excursion tickets and special one way tickets to points west, south northwest and southwest at very low rate. For further information, call upon Erie agents, or write.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration, it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

What You Ought To Know About Ohio Tax Laws

A DISCUSSION BY
LAWYER THORNDIKE AND FARMER PERKINS

NUMBER ELEVEN (Last Article of Series)

CONCLUSION.

Farmer Perkins—I have been talking the taxation amendment, now pending in Ohio, to every man of intelligence who would listen to me, and I am utterly disgusted with the apparent ignorance and indifference upon the subject. Many of them do not know it is pending and most of them will ask for an explanation of its aims and probable effects. All of them, however, fear the legislature, and seem to be unwilling to trust it with complete power over the taxation question. Those who fear the legislature most were formerly members of it.

Lawyer Thorndike—Local and state taxation is today the most vital question in the states composing the United States. It affects more people for good or evil than any other question. The country has become so densely populated and there has grown up such a rivalry between the respective states in developing their natural resources and in promoting manufactures that each state tax system, as affecting the prosperity of the particular state, has become an object of study.

There must be a body in every state which has supreme power. In enlightened countries that body is the legislature and not the sovereign or executive head of the state. If the people distrust the legislature, they must right the matter by selecting those they can trust, but it is absolutely essential that the legislature should have ample power. Such power is a necessity to the interests of the people, whose representatives they are. Supreme power in the legislature is supreme power in the people. The English government is the freest and most powerful on earth. It never was hampered with a written constitution and yet it is no other country is the power of precedent greater. Great Britain has no complaints of unjust and oppressive taxation beyond the next parliament. When a tax becomes unjust or oppressive parliament remedies it at once. No constitutional restrictions bar the way. The demands and interests of the people living are only considered. No few of ideas of men who dominated in 1846, or at any other time is considered.

When you undertake to hamper the legislative power as to taxation who is to do it? What right has this generation to constitute itself guardian for generations who will be in being when it is off the stage? What right has the generation of 1851 to constitute themselves our guardians and say that their ideas of taxation should govern us for 51 years? They are happily in their graves, and it is our misfortune that their ideas on taxation were not buried with them. The constitution of 1851, in Article I, Section 1, states that all men have the right to enjoy and defend life and liberty, to acquire and possess property and to seek and to obtain happiness and safety and then proceeds to abridge and take away these very rights by Section II Article XII of the same instrument by fixing a rule of taxation which has become destructive of the acquisition and possession of property and of the pursuit of happiness. Legislation in the organic laws of our states, has become a curse. A constitution should be only a declaration of principles and a frame of government.

We are required to tax money, credits, investments in bonds and stocks and real and personal property, according to its true value in money, but the money is hidden, the credits cannot be ascertained, or if ascertained their taxation can be defeated, the stocks are hidden; we cannot find the personal property, or if found we cannot determine its true value in money. Real estate is not taxed at its true value in money and the officers of the law, sworn to do their duty under the constitution, prevent it.

After 57 years' trial of this principle we have 16 per cent of the known money in the state on the tax duplicate, we have 30 per cent of the credits, 22 1/2 per cent of the personal property and 41 per cent of the real property.

Since 1846 the percentage of the various classes of property returned has steadily decreased, instead of increasing. In 1846 and 1851 public sentiment favored the ad valorem tax law, now it does not. How long will the people of Ohio keep up this pretense and fraud?

Farmer Perkins—You have shown the defects and shortcomings of the present system, but suppose the taxation amendment be adopted Nov. 30 proximo, what reforms can be accomplished under it?

Lawyer Thorndike—The State of Ohio can then cease the persecution and destruction of its citizens who are in debt. It can relieve those owning mortgages on their lands from paying full value on their lands and then paying the taxes on the mortgages on the same, which they are now doing. It can decrease the rate of interest to borrowers two per cent.

It can do away with the schools for perjury mentioned in the report of the

THE END OF HIS PULL

By C. B. Letwin

Copyright, 1903, by C. B. Letwin

When Terrence O'Geegan opened the Old Home saloon on the corner, with a free lunch lasting all day and a band playing at intervals, it was whispered about that he was a man with a pull. The saloon on that corner was there, the district leader was there, the captain of that police precinct and his ward men were there.

What had only been whispered on Saturday was talked of openly on Sunday. The Old Home was wide open all day long. One of the policemen dropped in during the afternoon to get a drink and give his moral support to the defiance of the law, and the patrol man on that beat stood up to the bar with two ward men, and drink good luck to Terry, as he became on them in a patronizing way. After that it was agreed that O'Geegan was "solid" all around. If a doubting Thomas dropped

HE STRUCK THE MAN A BLOW THAT

STRENGTHENED HIM DEAD

ped in as the days went by the proprietor of the Old Home if not too busy, would put all his doubts to flight by saying:

"I'm brother-in-law to Alderman Blank, see? I'm cousin to Jimmy O'Toole, who runs this district. See, he that the police captain is the wife's own uncle. Have that at a look. As to the ward men and patrolmen, I'm tipping them their drinks to see nothing. It's a combination you can't beat. When anybody starts out to make trouble for Terry O'Geegan he'll be up against a stone wall."

The Old Home prospered. It couldn't help but prosper. A saloon with a pull naturally becomes the headquarters of men with a pull and of men who yearn for a pull. It is also a handy place for thirsty pedestrians to drop into at any hour in the twenty-four.

Of course there were other saloon keepers who were jealous. They were making up stakes for the district leader, paying blackmail to the police captain and flipping extra dollars to the ward men, and they felt sore because they had to obey the law in a measure. They growled and grumbled and threatened, but when they became annoyed the police captain took a little promenade and said to them in turn:

"No more of this or you'll get the grand sky high!"

They shut up. No saloon keeper with an ounce of brains in his head will defy a police captain. One tries it now and then, and between the captain and the brewer he is put out of business within a fortnight.

The Old Home had been running two months when a row occurred there one night, and a man had his neck broken. It could easily have been shown at the coroner's inquest that he broke his own neck, but it was not necessary. A ward man and a patrolman fixed that. They had just dropped in for a drink at the moment, and they testified that the deceased pulled a gun and lost his life in the struggle to make use of it.

In a few days a hayseed tried to make the police believe he had been robbed of $300 while admiring the cost by mirrors in the Old Home, but they gave him three days in a dark cell and shipped him home a sadder and a wiser man.

Within a year the newspapers briefly chronicled many happenings at O'Geegan's. One or two of them brought O'Geegan before the coroner and the courts. That put him to some little trouble, but his prestige remained undimmed.

It was almost three years from the saloon opening of his saloon before Terrence O'Geegan found himself in a hole. With the aid of his pull he had successfully defied law and order in every direction. Now and then a friend confidentially advised him to check a bit, but Terry had patted him on the shoulder and told him it was breath thrown away. He was carrying the police and the courts in his vest pocket, and what could happen to him? Something did happen, however, but to this day it is spoken of as an accident or a series of accidents. A stranger entered the place one night and gave Terry some "lip." Terry was "off" that night, and he struck the man a blow that stretched him dead. It so happened that a green patrolman was on the beat that night, and he was idiotic enough to arrest Terry. It also happened that there were four or five men in the place who didn't regard murder as humorously as a game of hopscotch, and they were ready to testify.

"It wasn't accident to anything, of course," said Terry's friends as he went back to the Tomb. "There's fourteen of us to swear you clear, and of course you'll have friends on the jury. There will be flags flying and drums beating within two weeks."

But more accidents were in store for the man with a pull. The public was clamorous, the assistant district prosecuting attorney aggressive and the jurors men who looked at a spade as a spade. To the unutterable consternation of Terry himself he was found guilty of manslaughter, and the judge gave him a fifteen year sentence. The fourteen witnesses had not perjured themselves for nothing. There was the court of appeals left, but it was tiled in vain, and one day Terrence O'Geegan found himself one of the quarry men of a state prison gang.

There was hope left, however. Money and lawyers and states and appeals had failed to stay his sure progress, but plenty of men have escaped from state prison and been heard of no more. Terry's friends had got him detailed to the quarries, and Terry's last dollar had bribed a guard to shoot high when he bolted.

Then came the last accident of all. The bribed guard was taken ill and another substituted, and, occupied with his plans, Terry had not noticed the change. At a given signal he threw down his tools and bolted for the arms of his waiting friends. He heard the click of the rifle and the shouts of the guard, but they were all on the bull. As he ran and as he smiled to think what an easy game it was he suddenly pitched forward and turned over and over, and the excited guards found a dead man when they came up and bent over him. It was no use to sack the guard who had fired or try some other game. When a man is dead his pull is ended.

Wearing the Danger Line

Squire Pond ruled his village with a high hand and a peppery tongue, and his subjects seldom rebelled. There came a time, however, when he was made to feel that there was a point beyond which he could not wisely go.

This was disclosed to him by John Wayne, who had fallen under the lash of the squire's sarcasm by reason of an unsightly cupola lately added to his house. John had borne the stream of ridicule which had been poured out upon him but when he was at last free to depart to his disfigured home he stood twirling his hat in his hands.

"Square," he said desperately after an impatient question as to why he waited—"square there's one thing I've got to say. We all know you're got judgment and education, more than most, and we know you're getting on in years so we take this from you though sometimes it's a regular stunt to do it. You not here in your office and lay down the law to us same as if you had a right, there wouldn't anybody else have dared to speak slighting of my cupola as you have. But there's one thing I will say. I heard you'd ordered those newfangled, self-closing springs for your doors. An' what I want to say is, don't you have one put on your office door, square, or there won't a soul come nigh you."

And, with a violent nod and a slam of the door which showed why the self-closing spring would be a hardship to visitors, John took his departure.

A Sacred Fruit.

One of the most curious species of known fruit is the "holy or sacred citron" of the Jews, says a London Journal. Its virtues are lauded to the skies, and it is celebrated in legend, romance, poetry and song and yet it appears that it is never eaten. It is known in most all oriental countries, but appears to be most highly esteemed by the Moorish Jews of Tunis and Morocco.

On the streets of the last named city it is sold at about 8 cents per fruit. These fruits are generally purchased by bands of roving pilgrims, the members of religious processions and Jewish priests. When one of these sacred citrons falls into the hands of a priest he takes it to the synagogue, where it is kept to be used in some emblematic rite during the time of the great feast of the tabernacles. Not only in oriental countries are these holy fruits known and esteemed, but in Germany, Russia, France, Spain and in England.

The use of this unique fruit is supposed to be derived from the injunction contained in the twenty-third chapter of the book of Leviticus:

Wasting Valuable Time.

An old farmer died in a little village in the neighborhood of Paris. His fortune, the fruit of years of patient toil, was invested in a nice compact little farm. A nephew of the departed, believing him to be heir, called a few days later on the lawyer and before saying a word about the succession thought it only right and proper to shed a few tears.

"Poor uncle!" he murmured, "so kind so affectionate. To think that I shall never see him again!"

The notary allowed the young man to give full vent to his sorrowful emotions, after which he quietly observed: "I suppose you are aware that your uncle has left you nothing?"

"What?" exclaimed the nephew, suddenly changing his tone. "I'm not down in the will? Then why on earth did you let me stand weeping there and making a fool of myself for a good half hour?"—Soleil du Dimanche.

The Man of All Others.

Three girls are exchanging confidences and telling each other what sort of men they like best.

First Girl—I like a man with a past. A man with a past is always interesting.

Second Girl—That's true, but I don't think he is nearly so interesting as a man with a future.

Third Girl—The man who interests me is the man with a present.

READY TO FLY.

I see that is the way you feel, says the Romoc man to the nervous woman, hardly able to contain herself. Anyone certainly has my sympathy who suffers from nervousness. You are not only doing yourself harm by letting your nerves remain in this terrible depraved state, but if you ever expect to be a mother, you are doing an injury to a future human being. No woman with such shattered nerves can bring into this world, sound, healthy children. What can you do? You have tried everything—that's just it—stop trying everything. It is not drugs you want—it is not medicines, the greater part of which are alcohol,—that only excites your nerves more.

Just try Nature's own remedy, its name is Romoc, it does not contain any harmful drug or a drop of alcohol.

Buy a bottle and follow directions. In a few days you will see the good that it will do you. Not only will it revive your worn out and shattered nerves, but it will build up your entire body and give strength and vigor to every organ.

How will make a new woman. I could quote you many hundreds of cases where Romoc has made the most marvelous cures.

There was an outpouring from Delphos this morning on account of the trial of Lee Bishop, who stands today accused of an attempt to burglarize the home of Mrs. Della Gungery. Bishop was able to secure bail after his indictment and is being defended by Judge Lindeman.

There isn't a criminal case on the docket for this term which is likely to call forth as many witnesses as were sworn this morning, the state calling for 14 and the defense 22, making a total of 37.

According to the evidence offered by the prosecutor, and in his statement to the jury, Bishop and an unknown companion, had entered the house by a screen window on the night of the 12th of July, but the noise they made when inside awakened the family, and they were frightened away before they had a chance to secure anything. One of the intruders was upstairs, but escaped by a window, which led to a shed roof, tearing down a full galvanized iron chimney in his flight. In leaving the yard he climbed over a wire fence and left part of his trousers. This man is said to have been Bishop, and the state has several witnesses who claim to have recognized him as he passed them on the run.

The defense is that Bishop had been drinking hard from early morning until 11 o'clock on the night in question, and when he went home, was intoxicated to have attempted the burglary charged to him. An effort will be made to prove an alibi.

Temporary Liberty.
Charles Tabler, one of the three boys, who were indicted for breaking into an Erie box car and stealing three dozen bottles of beer, was released on bond in the sum of $300 this morning. His trial is set for Wednesday, Nov. 11, and he will be defended by J. N. Hutchinson.

Guilty As Charged.
Van White, the colored assailant of his brother-in-law, John W. Oglesby, has been found guilty of assault with intent to kill, the jury returning a verdict yesterday evening after a somewhat brief consideration of the evidence.

It was plain that the case drifted in the one direction of guilt and the defense had but little ground to stand on. After the verdict, the prisoner was remanded to jail until the court is ready to hand him his sentence, which will be one or more years in the penitentiary.

The Last Resort.
Two lads, who have given their parents, their teacher and the truant officer, in particular, no end of trouble, and worry, are to get a taste of what it means to come under the hand of a stern master.

Charles McClain, 14 years of age, son of Joseph McClain and Sylvester Crouse, aged 11, son of Mrs. Frank Stulliff, have been repeatedly warned of what would be the ultimate end, if they failed to obey the instructions of the court, and not heeding the advice they came to it today. Judge Miller sentenced the Crouse lad to the reform school yesterday, and today dismissed the McClain lad, who will also go to the institution.

Erie County Man Emptied Both Barrels Into a Visiting Aunt.

Sandusky, O., Oct. 29.—Louis Smith shot and killed his aunt, Mrs. J. H. Reed, early today, in Vermillion township, the woman being mistaken for a burglar. Mrs. Reed who was visiting the Smith home, quietly arose and left the house. On her return, she made considerable noise trying to open the door, and Mrs. Smith was awakened. She aroused her husband, who seized a shotgun, and went to the room whence the noise proceeded. He demanded to know who was there, and receiving no response, fired through a window at the form in front of the door. Both barrels of the gun were discharged into the woman's chest at short range, and the upper part of her body was literally torn to pieces.

Death was instantaneous. When Smith discovered the supposed burglar was his aunt, and guest, he fainted, and has since been in a state of collapse. Mrs. Reed was the wife of the foreman of a cooperative company, here, and was prominent.

Will Be Established by Government, Unless Local Officers Act Quickly

something, a mild quarantine will be established such as the fumigation of mails, prohibition of the moving of baggage, and other measures necessary in such cases." It has been generally understood that the quarantine order would be issued today. Dr. Batt's announcement creates the hope that at the conference between himself and Supt. McLaughlin, matters will be so arranged that quarantine will not be necessary.

FAMILY WILL TAKE A TRIP.

Attorney Blair Is Improving. House Furnishings Being Removed.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 29.—Jas L. Blair the attorney passed a comfortable night and today it is stated that he shows greater strength than at any time since his accident Saturday. He is expected to be sufficiently improved in health within a few days to stand the fatigue of a journey which it is said the whole family will take soon. The furnishings of the Blair mansion are being removed, and packing boxes and trunks are being sent to the city for shipment. The sale of the horses and equipments has continued until the stables have been completely emptied.

CATERING TO CROWDED HOUSES.

Lima People Are Grasping the Opportunity of Saving Money. Easily the Biggest Mercantile Event in the History of Lima.

We know of no event that is creating a greater stir than the Mammoth going out of business. A glance in the big store reveals the fact that hundreds of people are daily supplying themselves with clothing for the winter. There is no abatement whatever in the crowds and they must surely be selling the goods ridiculously cheap, otherwise the sale would not be so successful. We would advise our readers to avail themselves of the money saving chances and especially so to wage-earners. No matter how fine or stylish an article you may want, the Mammoth has it, as that store has always been considered an authority in dispensing fine wearables for men and boys.

MAIDS GIVEN REWARD FOR THEIR SERVICES.

New York, Oct. 29.—An association here which has been for some time struggling with the servant girl problem, has just held its third prize distribution. Twenty-three maids were presented with engraved cards and a box containing $10 in gold. They had remained in one household two years. Four girls received special prizes for having remained 4 years in one place.

A Well Dressed Man

Makes you stop and consider the very important point, "Do I look like him or am I shabby?" I wonder what it costs him to look like that?

Now Listen.

If he lacks good judgment, it costs him a lot of money. If he places himself in our hands, it doesn't. We endeavor to place every man that deals with us under obligation to us; and then he starts out to cancel that obligation by bringing in a "friend" who becomes a customer, and who in turn starts out to bring his friend, and so on.
